

Childrens' Day at ISG – a grand celebration

The children of the Primary wings of Indian School AlGhubra showcased their talents with dance, drama and music at the Childrens' Day celebration on Wednesday, 16 November 2011. Madam Saddiqa Abdul Majeed Al Lawati, Asst. Director International School Office, Directorate General of Private School was the Chief Guest.

The function was also graced by the presence of Members of the School Management Committee, parents and well wishers of the school.

Nooha Nazrulwani welcomed the guests formally and Zara Saldanha extended a floral welcome.

The Chief Guest gave away awards and certificates to the meritorious students.

The students of classes 3, 4 and 5 presented The Harvest Festival which depicted the common underlying thread that binds the culturally diverse India as one. The various harvest festivals celebrated in the different states of India along with the folklore, customs and dances was indeed an enthralling journey for the audience. The festivities of Madhya Pradesh, Assam, Tamil Nadu, Haryana, West Bengal and Kerala were staged with much enthusiasm.

The elaborate decorations that adorned the school was highly appreciated by the guest and parents alike. It truly reflected the theme of the show and added to the visual delight.

The sets, costume and music, along with the wonderful performance of the children won the hearts of one and all. Rithu Andrews and Faiz Ibrahim did a commendable job as the comperes for the show. The programme came to a close with the vote of thanks proposed by Amisha Mehta.
