

ISG alumnus in US National Cricket Team

In an announcement made by The United States of America Cricket Association for the Senior Men's USA team selected to compete in the ICC World Twenty20 Qualifier and World Cricket League Division 5 tournaments in Dubai, UAE and Nepal, respectively, Saurabh Verma from the batch of year 2000, of Indian School Al Ghubra, has been chosen to represent the USA.

Following a weekend long rigorous training camp at the Central Broward Regional Park in Lauderhill, Florida last month, under the watchful eyes of USA national coach Clayton Lambert, and New Zealand's Hamish Barton, USA Cricket Association 2nd VP and Director of Cricket Operations Sheikh Manaf Mohamed today made public the list of players in which Saurabh clinched the much coveted position.

This unique distinction is well deserved stated Mrs Papri Ghosh , Principal ISG as Saurabh had been a sportsman par excellence right from his early school days. Apart from leading the school cricket team to various exceptional victories, Saurabh still holds an unbeaten record partnership of over 200 runs in the Inter School tournaments hosted by the Oman Cricket Club. He has also been an excellent badminton player clinching top positions at various tournaments. Saurabh graduated from Georgia Tech University and is presently working in Seattle.

The Members of the school Management Committee, Staff and students have lauded the rare achievement of an ISG alumnus.
