

INDIAN SCHOOL , AL GHUBRA

TEACHER'S DAY CELEBRATION

ISG students expressed their love and affection for their beloved teachers at an impressive Teachers' Day celebration held in the school on Sunday, 5 September. The students dressed in casual wear added colour and gaiety to the day's programme.

The Morning Assembly began with a song rendered by the members of the Prefectorial Body, dedicated to all the teachers. Aakrit Punnose, Head Boy and Maithily Madhusoodanan, Head Girl addressed the teachers and thanked them on behalf of all the students.

The personalized mementos gifted to the teachers by the students were unique and well appreciated.

The students presented an array of cultural programmes. The vocal solo by Suraj Jog accompanied by Abheek and Sagar was very impressive. The Band comprising Warren, Levin, Shamak, Ramneesh, Surya and Nikhil took the teachers down memory lane with the evergreen hit Hotel California. The participants even succeeded in making the Principal join in. The skit, 'What??' that saw Sa'ad, Fahd, Abheek, Nikhil, and Shamak on stage caused a laughter riot with the well written script and hilarious punch lines.

The game shows organized for the teachers 'Soda with Shalmali and Sanaya', based on a popular TV programme and 'The Compatibility Test' conducted by Kavya and Anusaya was enjoyed by the teachers and students alike.

The Principal, Mrs. Papri Ghosh said she was young at heart being constantly in the company of students. She also proposed the vote of thanks on behalf of all the teachers applauding the efforts of the students in putting up such a memorable show.

