

INDIAN SCHOOL, AL GHUBRA

CHILDRENS' DAY CELEBRATION

The children of the kindergarten, preprimary and primary wings of Indian School Al-Ghubra showcased their talents with dance, drama and music at the Childrens' Day celebration on Wednesday, 19 November 2008. Dr. Swati Kulkarni, Counselor, Embassy of India was the Chief Guest. The function was also graced by the presence of Members of the School Management Committee, parents and well wishers of the school. Nidhi Narvekar welcomed the guests formally and Rupsha Debnath extended a floral welcome.

In her inaugural address Dr Kulkarni reiterated the need for each of us to work towards the cause of children and their betterment. She emphasized the role of the school and teachers in shaping the future of a child. Dr. Kulkarni praised the efforts of ISG on its commendable performance in this area.

She then gave away awards and certificates to the meritorious students. The tiny tots of kindergarten I presented the grandeur of Indian weddings while those of kindergarten II displayed the vital role of colours in our lives in their dance 'Expression of Colours'. The students of class 1 and 2 depicted the magic of seasons and showed how little children look forward to enjoying them with their near and dear ones. The girls and boys of class 3 staged the popular fairy tale 'Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs' which was much appreciated by the audience. The students of class 4 and 5 showcased the evergreen tale of Dorothy and her friends who went to meet the 'Wizard of Oz'. The sets, costume and music, along with the wonderful performance of the little ones won the hearts of one and all. Surya Suresh, Ashish Vinesh, Sharlot Bastin, Abeer Lala and Eldon Jervais did a commendable job as the comperes for the show. The programme came to a close with the vote of thanks proposed by Nadia Shiraj.
