

ISG bids adieu to Class 12 students

Indian School Al Ghubra organized the Formal Farewell for the students of Class 12 on Tuesday, February 20, 2018. The ceremony was graced by the presence of Dr. P Mohammed Ali, Founder, Indian School Al Ghubra, Mr. Ahmed Rayees, President, School Management Committee, Members of the School Management Committee and parents of the students taking the board exam.

The Principal, Mrs. Papri Ghosh, welcomed the gathering and addressed the students. She expressed her sense of satisfaction at having instilled confidence in them to cope with the world and having groomed them into good human beings. Mrs. Ghosh reminded the students to be empathetic and respect differences in people which alone will help them be the right global citizens.

In his exhortation, Dr. P Mohammed Ali stressed the need for students to be focused and disciplined in life. He stated that challenging the limit is the only way to go forward in life. He asked them to repose trust and confidence in one's own self and build trust with others as it is a valuable asset for an individual. Dr. P Mohammad Ali then presented the mementos to the students of Class 12.

In his address, Mr. Rayees asked the students to believe in themselves, do their best and give their 100% to be successful. He advised the students to work hard and stand up for what is right.

Mr. Ahmed Rayees presented Special Certificates to the 37 students who had completed 14 years of schooling in ISG. The audience cheered with a loud applause as they saw the photographs of each one of them as tiny tots on their first day at school and another as the young adult graduating from school.

Rupsha Debnath, Head Girl, stated 'Never doubt you are born to do great things' while expressing her gratitude to the alma mater which has given the freedom to chase their dreams and strive for the best. In his speech, Siddhant Suri Dhawan, Head Boy, stated that the school has always kindled the thirst for knowledge to soar to greater heights and its absolutely necessary to strive for the best to achieve success. He expressed his immense gratitude to all the teachers for their dedication and support. K.S.Suraaj, President, Student Council, shared his experiences and feelings in his memorable journey at ISG and thanked the alma mater which has shaped them to be what they are today.

Anushree Shirish Gupte, the Head Girl of ISGi, in her speech expressed her gratitude to the institution that has moulded them to succeed, groomed them into conscious human beings ready to face the world and given them the ability to empathize with people. The Head Boy of ISGi, Aditya Kamat, said that each lesson taught at ISG has shaped him into a good human being and he also expressed his desire of giving back to the society. He thanked the institution for all the encouragement and support.

The beautiful video which was dedicated to all the mothers was a reminder to the students to show their gratitude to their parents for their tireless dedication and selfless sacrifice.

The function concluded with the Principal, Mrs Papri Ghosh, wishing the students the very best in their examinations.
